

Friday 3. October

Open Source Days
2008

Time	TRACK 1	TRACK 2	TRACK 3		TRACK 4
Auditorium	AUD1, Ground floor	AUD2, Ground floor	Scroll bar, Ground floor	AUD3, 2nd floor	2A12, 2nd floor
Chairmen	Kurt Westh Nielsen & Gregers Petersen	Henrik Madsen	Bo Holst-Christensen		Hanne Munkholm
09.15	Welcome
09.30 - 10.20	Martin von Haller Grønbaek, Bender von Haller Dragsted Applied Copyleft	Claus Gårde Henriksen Oticon - Penguin first	Martin Parm, DIKU How to automate a large scale educational system with Gentoo		Simon Josefsson Open ID
10.30 - 11.20	Christian Lannig, CSI How the Danish public sector supports open source - how open source supports the public sector	Adam Jollans, IBM Linux, open Source and IBM: The Next Decade	Nigel Kersten Using Puppet to manage Linux and Mac platforms in an enterprise environment.		Steve McKinty Disaster Recovery with Sun and Open High-Availability Cluster.
11.30 - 12.20	Lunch Break
12.30 - 13.20	Josef Assad Free Software Adoption in the Enterprise: from Use to Community Membership	Mads Toftum OpenSolaris Storage Platform - Storage revolution in the making		Kasper Johansen, Casalogic Applications with PHP-GTK	Carsten Pedersen Deadly sins of MySQL/PHP
13.30 - 14.20	Martin Michlmayr, HP Governing the use of open source	Kris Buytaert Open Source Virtualization, an Overview		David Johnson Once and future Roller	Thomas Ammitzbøll-Bach, Prevas Welcome to the (not so) easy world of embedded Linux
14.30 - 15.20	James Callaghan, Ingres Europe Bringing Open Source to the Enterprise	Jens Nystrup-Jensen Sun xVM Server		Poul-Henning Kamp Best practices	Tommy Dejbjerg Pedersen Google Android - what is it?
15.30 -	Keynote Robin Rowe & Gabrielle Pantera Linux in Hollywood				